A Note from The Pastor

Congratulations to the Class of 2026! On behalf of all our parishioners, I want to extend our congratulations to all the graduating students from high school and college programs. "May Christ be your compass, the Holy Spirit your guide, and Mary your gentle protector as you step forward in faith to use your God-given talents."

The Banns of Marriage is announced for the second time for Jaret Aubiel and Shannon Bahen.

Diocesan/Parish Share Campaign: We continue to receive contributions to the 2026 D/PSC. As of this week, St. Joseph has received $16,605.00 and $26,509 has been committed to St. Francis Parish. Many thanks for your generous support.

Coffee and Donuts: Just a reminder that the CWC will provide coffee and donuts after the morning Mass this weekend! Please join us. We will resume Coffee and Donuts in September after a summer break.

O.C.I.A.: The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults (formerly RCIA) will be offered this Fall. Anticipating this I would like anyone interested in coming into full Communion with the Catholic Faith to contact me by calling the rectory office. I would hope to begin the program sometime this summer.

Prayer Chain Help: Do you want to assist with the Church prayer chain? Please contact the parish office (537-4433) for more details.

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY
GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

In today's first reading, we hear how Moses, obedient to God's command, ascends Mount Sinai early in the morning. Up at the summit, the Lord appears to Moses in a cloud and shares his name with Moses: "LORD" (in Hebrew, the tetragrammaton, the unspeakably holy divine name). But God doesn't only reveal the name that Moses should call him by; he also reveals what kind of God he is: "The Lord, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger and rich in kindness and fidelity." Moses bows down in worship and entreats the Lord to "receive us as your own." Today's Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity reminds us that we have a God who wants us to not only know his name, but to know his inner self. The Father, Son, and Holy Spirit are – indeed – the God who is rich in mercy. And anyone who believes in this God will not perish but will have eternal life. May we bow our hearts in worship of the Lord this day, grateful for the gift we have of belonging to the people he calls his own.

GO EVANGELIZE | PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Our second reading contains a detail that might come as a surprise to our 21st-century ears: "Greet one another with a holy kiss." This gesture in the New Testament era was an outward sign of the communion and love that existed in the early Church – a communion that we're also called to today. The communion that exists in the Church is meant to point the world back to its source: God himself. Part of the witness we're called to offer the world as Christian believers is the love we share among one another. The Church is to be a sacrament or "sign and instrument … of … union with God" and unity with "the whole human race." (Lumen Gentium 1) The bonds of love that exist among Christians is about more than just having a tight-knit community; it's about showing the world that we're called to a loving relationship with God and with one another.

WITNESS

This week, consider how you can strengthen the bonds of friendship you have with your fellow Christians, so that united together in love and peace, you can bear witness to the God who is Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Consider participating in a fellowship (social) event being put on by your parish or invite someone you see regularly at Church out for coffee or brunch after Mass.
